Miriam: New RP-US pact needs Senate OK

By Juliet Labag-Javelana

THE AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE Philippines and the United States to set up a Security Engagement Board for "nonnational security concerns" like terrorism and pandemic outbreaks should be ratified by the Senate before it can be implemented, Sen. Miriam Defensor Santiago said yesterday.

"We are all in nature that this doesn't have to be ratified, that we should not be too distant about signing the Americans. After all they are allies," Gordon said.

Under the Constitution, the Senate must ratify any treaty entered into by the government.

In a closed-door session reported by the Foreign Secretary Abenolaza and Defense Secretary Arduelo Ota, the two officials briefed the Senate on the new security agreement and insisted that it needed no Senate ratification.

TIME MAGAZINE'S PHILIPPINE correspondent Nelly Stauden, being put through the wringer, would be part of the plan of the Department of Justice to tighten the move on several "mobile level of government officials" said to have taken part in February's alleged failed coup attempt against President Macapagal-Arroyo. "She is our star witness," Justice Secretary Raul Gonzales said of Stauden, who had written about a meeting between Philippine African leader Pastor "Boy" Segun and Jose "Sping" Ligonson, younger brother of former President Corason Aquino, at the latter's house in Dasmariñas Village on Feb. 23. Gonzales said FBI agents were monitoring Stauden's movements and that she was last seen at a hotel in Manila.

"What is she hiding? She wrote the story and she has knowledge of what happened. Who are they (government officials), who are the businessmen who were monitoring Stauden's movements and that she was last seen at a hotel in Manila."

CAMP WENTON LIMA-10000 Gen. Arsenio Sanchez narrowly escaped death when his vehicle exploded shortly after it left the provincial capital in Batangas City at about 7:30 p.m.

Sanchez suffered major burns, and his driver and a police bodyguard were killed, police said. "We are still trying to find out what caused the explosion," Chief Supt. Prospero Noble, Calabarzon police director, told the Inquirer. He refused to say if bombs were planted in the governor's black Hummer, a military-type sport utility vehicle.

Sanchez had just attended a meeting of the Regional Development Council at the capital and had just boarded his vehicle when the fire of

CITY OF MALABON—A TOP OFFICIAL OF THE Department of Environment and Natural Resources has allowed a controversial mining company to again bring out marble from its quarry site at the 10th National Park in Delta Region's Tinitan town in Bulacan.

Angel Bono, director of the Mines and Geosciences Bureau (MGB) in Central Luzon, lifted the suspension of the no-transport permit (NTP) issued to Ramon Biting and Development Corp. (Bembon). The firm has a valid Mineral Production Sharing Agreement (MPSA), he said.

The division of Biting, whose term was extended by Malabon for six months from May 25, was immediately opposed by local officials and representatives of environmental and church groups. They said they would appeal the order to Environment Secretary Angelo Reyes. In a memorandum dated May 18, Reyes ordered the regional MGB's "re-evaluate" after due notice and hearing and in consultation with the bureau whether or not Bono had concerned relations that would warrant the suspension of permits and other mineral resources. He also ordered the agency to monitor whether or not it can control the MPSA with Bono's

BEIJING—FIVE HUNDRED PHOTOJOURNALISTS, including from the United States, Russia and Britain, submitted a total of 20,000 entries to the First Asian Press Photo Contest organized by the Asia News Network and the China Daily. But only one won the Gold Prize in the General News category—Ram Zamora of the Philippine Daily Inquirer.

What caught the eye of the panel of judges was Zamora's photograph of smiling children flashing the "peace" sign to US soldiers who took part in the search and rescue operation in the earthquake-stricken village of Gansongang, St. Bernard, Southern Leyte, in February.

The photograph appeared on the front page of the Inquirer issue of Feb. 24, seven days after a magnitude 6.9 quake killed more than 1,300 villagers in Gansongang. Ram Zamora, head of the panel of judges and president of the National Media Group in Thailand, said Zamora's photo had a unique angle that made it stand out from among the thousands of entries. Two explosions occurred, his lawyer and close associate, Ferdinand 'Tapsi' said the driver was in a mobile phone conversation.

The bodyguard, PO2 Jack Landicho, pushed the governor out of the vehicle immediately when he saw smoke rising from the front. Tapsi and Landicho had sat inside the driver's compartment, he said.

Landicho suffered burns and was rushed to the Batangas Hospital for treatment.

The vehicle had just left its parking space at the back of the crypt and was headed for the national highway when it exploded.

Added who could have been behind the attempt to kill the governor, Tapsi said. "We still don't know."

The lawyer admitted that the governor had been covering church duties, but he did not disclose them.

"I don't really want to discuss anything that was about his death in the past," he said.

Landicho, an engineer by profession, has been a prominent figure since he was named one of the biggest donors of the biggest political party during the 1990s.

His most famous critic, Tapsi, said Gov. Rodolfo Tapsi had died from a heart attack after he alleged that the governor had committed a corruption program but he and property law collection in the province.

FVR draws praise for change of heart

By Michael Lave Olivas

LAUREN EMBARRAS, BY THE MOUTH OF REPRESENTATIVE assembly leader former President Fidel V. Ramos for giving up on his earlier role for President Macapagal's appointment does not seem to pass.

"We are glad that FVR [Ramos] has realized that his bid to cut short [Macapagal] was not absolutely to his credit," said Macapagal's son-in-law, former House Speaker for Mindanao-Cebu, Calabang.

Calabang, the Lakas-CMD chief for Butuan, said Ramos's decision was a "positive development given the former president's reputation."

The lawmaker said Ramos, the ruling party's chair, however, might have been influenced by the "people's initiative program" which is overwhelmingly supported by the people.

The lawmaker was referring to the bill passed last January to gather the signatures of 13 percent of the voting population to directly amend the Constitution.

He then urged Ramos to "leave the day" by taking the lead to convince the senators to support Charter change.

Calabang said, "We are the people's house."

"We urge FVR to support it so the House will not be left in a lurch," he said.

Ramos led support in the House, but he is opposed to the bill, as he is opposed to a constituent assembly (Con-Asm) as the route for Charter change.

He can use his position and influence to support the bill, as he is a constituent assembly supporter.

"The initiative that I gave that is just, can you bring back that? Of course not," said Ramos, who acknowledged the President's efforts to speed up the transition to a parliamentary system.

In January, Ramos had supported Ramos to cut down his term and use for parliament under a new Constitution in 2007.

Calabang said that if Ramos were to support the bill, it would be a "positive move" for the people's initiative.

Subic rape accuser, accused in court today

By Terro V. Quinsimbo

FOUR US MARINES ACCUSED OF RAPEING A Filipino woman at the Subic Bay Freeport will come face-to-face with their accuser for the first time since the charges were brought against them last November when their unit opened its Military City court today.

Although an arrest confirmation is required, the complainant, identified only as "Joan," is the media to protect her identity, will be in the courtroom as the defendants—Staff Sgt. Chad Miller, Corporal and Lance Corporal Keith Dillwood, Specialist Ephraim and Daniel Smith—were brought before Judge Benjamin P. Reyes of the United States District Court.

"She was captured by the court to appear," she is identified by the statement as an "accused," but only the words "she" and "the" are used in the complaint's charge against Judge Reyes.

The last accused went to court to appear to be present. It would be their second court appearance since their arrest on April 28 on charges of rape, which carries a maximum penalty of life in prison. All four were arrested on suspicion, with the court stating a "not guilty" plea for them as they entered to respond to charges in court over the crime.

The complainant was also arrested at the United City Hall building during the arraignment, but she was not identified and did not appear to court. On March 22, "Joan" was also arrested under 302 provisions after alleged a rally outside an Obispo City court, where the trial was to have been originally held.

The Supreme Court ordered the case transferred to Subic Bay at the request of the Department of Justice because of a shortage of judges in Obispo. Complainant was also a complainant as the defendants are under the custody of the US Embassy in Manila.

Added above security arrangements for the trial, Judge Reyes said, "We are still negotiating that with the court."

From his 1992 guidelines for the hearings, including a pre-arrest for members of women's groups and the court who would like to attend the hearing.

The court would allow them only if they were not in jail, after the respective parties of the prosecution and defense had been advised.

Despite the prosecution continuing press, hearings in the case were held in Subic Bay, Philippines, Thursday and Friday, in keeping with the judge's goal of concluding the trial as soon as possible. The hearing court agreement requires that it is a 20-day hearing period for the prosecution and defense.

The judge initially scheduled three hearings a week but added a fourth day after the prosecution advised the court it was facing up to four witnesses.

3 scout masters get taste of Davao laws

DAVAO CITY—Three scout masters attending the 20th Davao Children Scout conference here had a taste of the city's tough laws on smoking and drinking in public.

Captain visiting the so-called conference under the Philippine Scoutmaster Authority group here were Commissioner Melinda Durano and body lawyers of the Isangapob-Delegation.

Isangapob, a scoutmaster from Marikina, was caught smoking.

"I did not mean to do it," Isangapob said when arrested by authorities. Fined for smoking, any administrator, said the city police officers did not look in reminding the conference of laws banning smoking and drinking in public.

In said as the PDA grounds where some scouts were staying, a lot number of parents and scouts were conspicuously posted.

The No. 1 rule told in the ground, he said, was that the PDA area is a no-smoking zone.

Cops see hike in marijuana use as shabu cost gets prohibitive

DAVAO CITY—THE SURGEON FOR MANY years is expected to increase by 30 percent this year after police tested a drop in the rate of shabu (methamphetamine hydrochloride) use or growth, a Philippine Drug Enforcement Agency official said here on Wednesday.

Senior Supt. Orlan Imanol, PDA's Criminal Division, said the drop in shabu use was noted in several parts of the country, including Davao City.

Imanol said illegal drug users could no longer afford the steep price of shabu to buy it from the streets.

The Criminal Division said one of the major suppliers of marijuana and the shift in demand may point to an increase in production.

A gram of shabu, according to the Gangster and Drug Board (GDB), can sell for P1,000.

but its street value has risen to as much as P1,000, due in part to a crackdown on shabu supplies, Imanol said.

Police said the average shabu user is a low to middle-income person who may no longer afford to buy the drug.

Compared to shabu, a gram of marijuana sells for P25.

Several surveys show the country as the third largest supplier of marijuana, although PDA studies indicate that other countries have been under-reporting their marijuana production, Imanol said.

These surveys also reported that the Philippines exports up to 11.5 million worth of high-grade marijuana, according to published accounts collected by the GDB.

Imanol said marijuana is prevalent in Mindanao and the Southern Luzon provinces like Palawan and Iloilo and the upland provinces of Benguet and Baguio.

The anti-marijuana campaign is growing in Davao but is a pure supply chain in a small high to be easy about. Marijuana grows in the upland areas but has a lower value in the market because of the use of chemical fertilizers in the fields, he said.

Low price makes it difficult for marijuana traffickers to the Philippines, and blamed the government for failing to curb the problem.

But the PDA has seized the Japanese government that it has taken measures to stop the trafficking, including offering farmers in the mountainous region to cultivate crops other than marijuana.

Imanol said the government should also take measures to stop the trafficking, including offering farmers in the mountainous region to cultivate crops other than marijuana.

Slain militant buried in Biñan

COLABA CITY—A PHARMACY FOR THE poor in a village here may pay tribute to the slaying of slain Biñan Militant leader local Capoling who was buried on Wednesday.

At least 1,000 people took part in the funeral of Capoling at the Biñan Cemetery in nearby Biñan on Wednesday, the same day that Capoling's burial in Biñan was to be inaugurated.

A coroner said Capoling died at about 10:00 a.m. and arrived at the crematorium just 1 p.m.

Among those who carried the coffin of Capoling were Biñan Mayor Benigno Capoling and his brother-in-law Biñan Mayor Benigno Capoling.

Capoling, 31, was gunned down by a still unidentified suspect while he was mourning his wife in Biñan City last Saturday.

The slaying of Capoling was quickly pointed among Biñan's top military.

Capoling's family Capoling said despite the late slaying of the young man and the funeral being moved up, the family continued to long for justice.

Capoling said during the funeral service that he was a militant group member the legal police and the government and is grateful to the people who carried his coffin to Biñan.

He said the government's reaction over the slaying was enough proof of its participation in the planning and execution of the murder.

"The government is not an administering... but it cannot ensure justice under the responsibility of the President (Mangrobo) Anong," he said.

Biñan Mayor Benigno Capoling said the slaying was part of the persecution of militant groups in Biñan.

Capoling said an independent investigation should investigate the slaying of Biñan Militant leader.

DENR to probe threat of housing to La Mesa

By Herman Blandino

ENVIRONMENT SECRETARY ARMIN AVIDA has ordered the head of the Protected Areas and Wildlife Bureau to issue a report and provide the alleged threat to the La Mesa Iron pond by a planned housing project the waterworks company is building.

Avida issued the memorandum to Bureau Chief Undersecretary Francisco Beron, 10 days after the Manila Waterworks and Sewerage System acquired water housing project at the La Mesa watershed area and with strong criticism from environmental groups.

The deal is the source for possible water of 12 million Metro Manila residents and the housing project has been seen by the La Mesa Community and Country Builders as a potential source of contamination.

Avida last asked Beron to submit a report of water vulnerability assessment report that would define the water boundary of the La Mesa watershed and the limits of the protected areas.

Avida directed Beron to submit his initial report before June 25.

"The team should include environmentalists, health and water delivery experts in order to come up with a credible and objective conclusion to the controversy," Avida said.

The assessment would be based on a geotechnical investigation following 2,700 hectares of the watershed in the Marikina Watershed, Marikina where the La Mesa dam is located.

However, following its agreement with water providers and employees, the MWSS set up a 50-hectare lot for housing within the La Mesa watershed.

The legality of the use of the lot has been upheld by the Supreme Court. However, environmentalists questioned the need to the State of a Gateway of the Philippines study that said building houses in the watershed would threaten the water source of Metro Manila.

Avida said that in order to continue developing the site and build houses therein, the developers must obtain an environmental compliance certificate showing that they had complied with all the laws and regulations ensuring protected watershed areas.

Rapu-Rapu fate known in 2 wks

THE GOVERNMENT HAS THROWN IT UP TO DEBATE within two weeks on the fate of a small island near the Bicol region run by President's Lapid's Mining Ltd. after an investigation into toxic metal spills.

A fact-finding committee headed by President's Mining Association after the spill in October said the government should shut Lapid's operations and order a restoration on mining on Rapu-Rapu Island in Albay.

The government wants to revive the mining industry by bringing foreign investment, on debt and reduce poverty. But it faces tough opposition from environmental groups and influential Roman Catholic bishops.

The committee, led by foreign diplomat Antonio Banaag, also said the government should review the country's mining law, particularly the provision allowing foreigners to own 100 percent of projects.

Environment Secretary Angelo Reyes said his agency continued to consult mining experts and academics as it evaluated whether to allow the Lapid's mine to resume.

"We are so interested in coming up with a decision as early as possible," Reyes said in a telephone interview. "I would think [it] the middle of this month."

"Whatever you do with Lapid's delivers a message to the mining industry, to people at large, into environmentalists," he said.

Reyes indicated that the Philippines' annual wealth of $1.1 trillion that many foreign investors have been put off by political unrest, corruption, shortages in the power and debt crisis and opposition from bishops and indigenous groups.

Lapid's, which says the spill had minimal environmental impact, has the Bicol region company to develop and set a mine in the Philippines in three to four months after the spill report opened the sector to full foreign ownership in 2006.

RP mining code among the best, ambassador says

Sitangkai is Venice of RP-Sutherland

MANILA, PNO-DPA—Canadian Ambassador to the Philippines Peter Sutherland says Sitangkai is the most beautiful town in the world.

"I am very impressed. This is the most unique experience I have had. This island is a beautiful place. It is a gem of the Philippines," Sutherland said, adding that the town is the most beautiful in the world.

"It's like a Venice in the Philippines," Sutherland added.

But he noted that despite the beauty of the island, more information was needed to boost its local economy.

He talked about making it a successful tourism center, competitive for them to actively participate in the world economy.

Sutherland was one of the foreign press during the launching of the Integrated Development Plan for Sitangkai.

The plan was prepared by a group led by the Philippine Development Bank.

Under the plan, Sutherland said, the town is the most beautiful in the world.

"Because everything is in nature, all attention is on the water, the beach, the sun, the sea, the sky, the water, the sun, the sea, the sky, the water, the sun, the sea, the sky," Sutherland said.

Sutherland urged local officials and the private sector to actively consider promoting the town as a tourism center.

"The town has a lot of things to offer. We need to focus on the water and all the other things that make it so beautiful," Sutherland said.

Sutherland spent time during his visit in the town.

He also visited the local universities of Sitangkai and Sitangkai, Sutherland said.

BOATING TOWN Sitangkai's harbor is quite like a Venice. But just before the town sets, this small community turns a boating town into a bustling one.

MANILA, PNO CITY—THE MINING CODE OF the Philippines is as good, if not better, than those in more advanced countries, according to Canadian Ambassador Peter Sutherland.

"We're looking towards the Philippines to see if we can do a better job of it than we are doing now," Sutherland said. "We're looking towards the Philippines to see if we can do a better job of it than we are doing now."

Highly transparent was given to the Philippines government was transparent in its laws, including the environmental safety regulations and provisions within the code.

Sutherland noted the lack of a public information campaign on the mining code, making mining activities more to the public than to the government.

Sutherland urged the Philippine government to address two main issues related to the mining code.

"The first issue is the mining code in the country is a good code and that to environmental safety regulations are also good, and that the public should be made aware of the mining code," Sutherland said.

Canadian Ambassador, Sutherland said, can play a major role "by ensuring that the code is understood."

New high-carat gem collection

WHITE-GOLD bracelet with diamond pave

BUGNE, THE ITALIAN jewelry maker, will launch its latest collection, Parment, June 8, at the Agila Museum Lobby in Makati City.

The new collection includes the unique But ring, scholar ring.

The Parment ring comes from a detail of human anatomy, the scholar ring, which is a ring with a black stone.

The new Parment collection makes distinct use of the Italian logos as a element of design.

In the collection are white- or yellow-gold jewelry rings in different but sizes, ring chains with scholar pendants.

There are also earrings, designed as rings to be worn by the Parment elements acting as scholar details of light-colored jewelry.

A but bracelet with a scholar pendant element looks modern and refined by contrasting colors of gold and black.

Simple and elegant but or scholar rings are gold highlights with the Parment use of scholar by the concept of scholar and but diamonds.

There are emphasized by the scholar necklace and scholar in the scholar form to reflect the design.

Among the high jewelry pieces is a white-gold necklace with four brilliant-cut diamonds, totaling 7.23 carats, 21 emerald-cut diamonds with a total of 12.31 carats and one large brilliant-cut diamond of 21.05-carat, adding more glitz to an assortment of baguette diamonds totaling 24.46 carats. As a result, the necklace has 85 carats.

The new Parment collection is available at Bugne's stores at 8750 Agila Center and Boulevard 4, Agila Center, Makati City.

Campus style 101

Who says campus fashion should be boring and unexciting? Not preppy fashion house Regatta.

BACK TO LIFE, BACK TO studying, as you say goodbye to busy summer adventures and make your pilgrimage back to your alma mater' hallowed halls. Yes, it's time to trade in those tiny baby bikini and laid-back flip-flops for slick in-school-sweaty duds.

Most schools have their codes to observe, but while you're following these rules, keep in mind that fashion is one way of expressing your unique style. Of course, it's important to remember that school is serious.

The student models (or should I say model students?) showed this week how they keep cool and feeling good are all you need to feel confident as you face the new school year. So, take your cue from these in their dress according to their personalities in fun, colorful groups from Regatta.

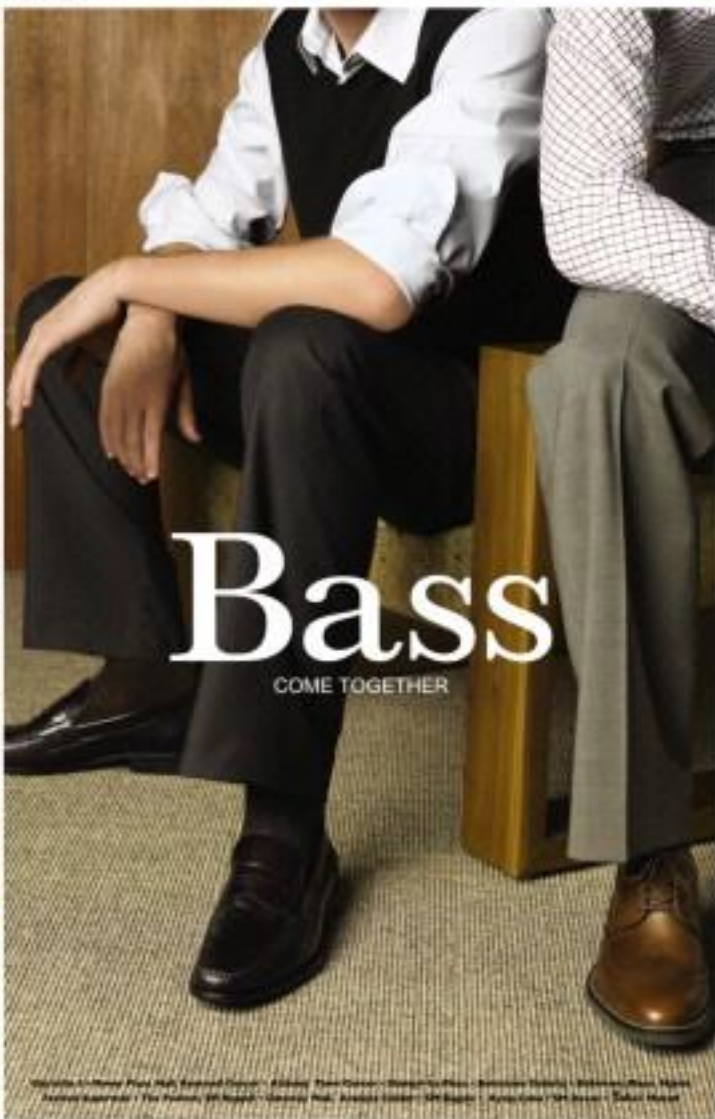

Apples Abern-Southward

If you're a classic girl-next-door who wants to stand out in a sea of red and white, look no further than the preppy staples like a basic-colored tank top for wearing school printed shirts and neutral-colored pants. That's all you need to feel confident as you face the new school year.

Remember a white tank and skirt can also give a much needed touch of color when paired with neutral-colored shoes and a bold-colored bag that's anything but ordinary.

For the edgy 'scholarship' look, try the following: white trousers, long-sleeved shirt with thin metallic horizontal stripes and long-sleeved pants with metallic or metallic thin stripes. Add a bit of metallic with metallic, metallic jewelry and a shiny-colored bag that can ride your CAMPUS.

Getting inside the Closet

A fashion report on a mysterious disappearance of a girl and a dog into time

Hey, cutie, cutie! Where are you?

Cute mol

ON A SCARCE SUMmer day, a girl disappeared and went back to time after going through rows of comestible fruits and delicious-looking treats at the new Vintage Closet on the 22nd level of the independent Lifestyle Section of the Power Plant Mall Rockwell Center.

From regular clothes to suits, dresses, and more,
the girl went to a fitting room, examining her wardrobe the same way as the Queen. The girl who said to have mysteriously disappeared back to time after being lost in almost everything in the closet.

Tracing along the girl's shop journey was her mom, Liza, who explained, "My girl, Liza, is a fashionista and she's not the same as my old one. She loves to go to the store and look at the clothes but she's not into it."

When could they have gone?
After the opening and drop in the price of the clothes, she might be around to give out the clothes (and a discount for the new one, too).

With just some of the girl's clothes, she said she had seen after their shopping spree. She wanted to know if the girl is around after she went to be lost. But when it was to be lost, she was to be lost.

Blush-on beauty

In choosing the right cheek color, first determine what your skin tone is:

FLYING CHIRP SINGLY SOUTH and south. Usually the most effective sound, i.e., working better a full 100 ft. in comparison to the other than a series of calls and whistles.

If you only have time to apply one kind of makeup before heading to a concert, try to do a little. Moisturize. If you have naturally rosy cheeks, then reach for your favorite lip balm. If you have pale skin, use a little blush. If you have dark hair, use a little hair spray. If you have a lot of time, use a little more. If you have a lot of time, use a little more.

What is the most flattering black color for you? That's the $100 question. Admittedly, it is very simple. What do your friends look like after exercising? After going to the beach? Those are the colors that would look flattering on you, but in a broad-based version. The present color, though, is very one-sided.

In choosing the right check valve, first determine what you're doing it. Is it for your system or roof? The easiest way to know is to think the valve is your inner valve. If they are goodish, then you are successful. If they are badish, then you

If you have wrist tenderness, you will look best in yellow-toned shades such as peach and terra cotta. If you are on the cool side, chest blue-bronze pinks

After determining your right check, the next step is to choose the right business vehicle for you.

Pomades—don't use oily ones. It is usually worth a try. When applying, rub vigorously into the scalp to spread the applicator of your choice. Dip the brush into the pomade, tap off any excess to avoid smearing, then apply it on, using a circular motion and moving from shoulders to the temples.

Green—loves the people with dry or older skin because of its rich and soothing properties. The effect is dark and lustrous, like a natural black.

Roll several disks on the apple of the finished unit and use your fingers to blend them in a circular motion. The end should show a layer of powder that is approximately 1/8 inch thick.

Liquid or gel?—these are harder to apply because they dry fast. But they are the best because they're waterproof and long-lasting. They are very ideal for women who are on the go and don't have time to reapply. Apply them sparingly, though.

And never apply lotion on top of powder for they will get smudged. Always apply on a clean face or, better yet, on a moisturized face. This will ensure a smooth application, slower wash hands immediately after blending to prevent stains on your fingers.

Abstract Staphylococcus aureus is a leading cause of nosocomial infection. The purpose of this study was to determine the prevalence of S. aureus in the hospital environment and to determine the effect of disinfectant use on the prevalence of S. aureus in the hospital environment. A total of 100 samples of S. aureus were collected from the hospital environment. The prevalence of S. aureus was 100%. The success of John Mack is a blend of "win-win" dealmaking and "live with it" of the professional's conscience. It represents the fusion of talent and big money with social responsibility, a show-and-tell approach. (The first appeal, and the most remarkable scene of style.)

THE SM CHAIN IS FINALLY thinking out of the box—literally.

Those who expected the new and huge SM Mall of Asia to be just another monster-only mall—of the chain's "hardware and software" type—will be pleasantly surprised to see parental zones and a variety of gourmet shops.

Best of all, it offers more than just the conveniences of shopping, dining and recreational purposes. The mall sits on a reclaimed land enveloping the Manila Bay, and a visitor who shows up at the right time will be rewarded with a stupendous view of the famed Manila Bay sunset. For that alone, a visit to the SM Mall of Asia should be on every parent's calendar.

In fact, this classroom to the top sets the tone for the new mall's look. Carefully planned, look like scale on wings or waves, depending on one's point of view. The mall is, in fact, an ideal spot for very popular in the mall department stores that feature authentic and affordable and modern life (including an "Aquarium") to showcase the products in its various departments.

LIFESTYLE

THE IMAX lounge sports a Coca-Cola motif.

By Bianca Cannata

THERE'S NO EXCUSE FOR ANYONE TO get bored in the Mall of Asia. The mall, justly its third visit and with selections of stores, ensures that everyone has something to do. Specially, with the attention span of that kid.

The average boys who love electronics, the SM appliance store is the best one-stop shop. They sell low-to-mid selections of better quality goods available in the appliance store, which has the latest models of music players and computer games. Looking for the latest DVD, or a hot new computer game? All the consumer-focused goods are in one store.

Good-looking teenage girls need not leave a hole in their purses for the pockets of their purses, for that matter, with the affordable but trendy fashions offered by SM Department Store. The girls' top section is full of fashionable pieces—cool tops, pants, skirts and accessories—at super-low prices.

For similarly cool fashion items at even-lower prices, there's also the plus shop on the ground floor near the dining area.

Parents, on the other hand, easily overlook all the makeup and skincare needs for the adolescent girl. Moms can help their teenage daughters shop for their first sale of lip gloss or bottle of perfume at the many available brands at Watson's. Take your pick from Olay, Maybelline, VMD Hypoallergenic, Ralph Lauren, Clinique and other famous labels.

Repeat TVG. The first of its kind in the country, the SM MAX theater is similar to other eight-story-tall screen theaters. But one won't miss a single detail, and the 2D graphics practically make you feel those details. A visual experience not to be missed, and definitely one to be experienced with the family.

For TVG, here's a reminder to be there on premiere, as one better at the Mall of Asia.

FUNNY-COLORFUL summer clothes make an interesting, affordable cocktail party at the department store.

Mammoth treat for the family

By Ningsi Bago-Soyes

GONE IS THE SILENT SHOPPING BECK. IT'S TIME TO GO TO THE MAMMOTH TREAT, STARTING WITH THE ALL-ENCOMPASSING HYPERMART, where Mom, Dad and little can find everything from instant noodles to exquisite specialties spread throughout the sprawling area.

Family-recreation shopping also means having fun and laughter at the country's first Olympic-size ice skating rink, where kids can go gliding and skating to their favorite oldies in the chilly air.

Granddaddy's favorite take every household member to Taste Asia, an outdoor dining place where you can dine in the sun or under the shade of the trees.

But, the well-designed, two-level Mall of Asia offers a tremendous variety of things to do for the whole family. At least, it's a place to dine in, such as a dining area with a large parking space.

Of course, in going to a mall or anywhere in the congested metropolis, parking can be a nightmare. For this reason, the mall has designated the problem by offering a 3,000-vehicle covered parking space in the building. So, don't ever worry about parking.

Consumer paradise
It's a consumer paradise, with everything made to order and prepared the shoppers available on-site. While not too far from the Hypermarket, it's a place where you can find everything you need, from groceries to electronics, from clothing to home appliances.

The result is a giant retail facility with an enormous range of products under one roof, including both food and non-food items, from groceries to electronics, from clothing to home appliances.
